

Ramsdell tabbed to be next member of Chamber board

From Staff Reports

news@goochlandgazette.com

Nora Ramsdell, owner of Décor & You, has been elected to fulfill the term of Joni Marshall, former vice-president of the Bank of Goochland, on the Chamber of Commerce's Board of Directors.

Marhsall recently received a promotion and moved to the holding company of TransCommunity Financial located in Innsbrook.

The Chamber of Commerce's Executive Director Doris Elderman said the Chamber is delighted to have Ramsdell on the board.

Elderman worked with Ramsdell on a variety of projects throughout the past two years, she said.

"Nora brings with her a strong work ethic, numerous talents and shares in the vision of moving the Chamber to yet another level in 2008," Elderman said.

Ramsdell is a native of Puerto Rico and is fluent in both English

Contributed photo

Nora Ramsdell is the Chamber's newest board member.

and Spanish.

She brings a creative technical background to her Interior Design career. Ramsdell has a bachelor's degree in electronics engineering technology.

In 2005, Ramsdell received her diploma in interior design from Sheffield School of Interior Design in New York and is now a Certified Interior Designer.