

"A taste of Goochland"

Blane Cope showcased the many artistic opportunities available for all ages at her studio Art a la Carte on River Rd. Cope was one of approximately 40 business owners and/or representatives who participated in the Goochland Chamber of Commerce's "A Taste of Goochland and Business Expo" on Thursday, October 5.

Bill and Carol Servais handed out samples of their famous Velatis caramels.

The Jo's Nest booth, manned by Joanna Gammon, featured a variety of embroidered merchandise as well as gifts.

Nora Ramsdell explained the one-stop interior design services provided by Decor & You. Approximately 200 persons attended the event at the Boy Scout facility on Maidens Rd. last week.